LEST WE FORGET

LEST WE FORGET At a militaria fair held at the Copdock Community Centre last year I was offered several old postcards featuring the unveiling of two Great War memorials. The postcards were in very good condition and four of them obviously related to one specific place and occasion, although even with a magnifying glass it was impossible to identify where the memorial was. In fact the memorial did not ...

LEST WE FORGET, QUAKER YEARLY MEETING PEACE STATEMENT 2014

LEST WE FORGET - Statement from the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), Yearly Meeting of Aotearoa New Zealand, Te Hāhauwiri, May 2014 On the eve of commemorations of World War I, Quakers in Aotearoa New Zealand are concerned that history is not reinvented to glorify war. We remember the loss of life, the destruction of the environment, the courage of soldiers, dissenters and conscientious obj...

HUMAN AFFAIRS 20, 294299, 2010 DOI: 10.2478/v10023-010-0031-y LEST WE FORGET: FREE-THOUGHT AND THE ENVIRONMENT KILE JONES Abstract: In the world of modern theology, specifically Western theology, there has been a tendency to knit together religion and morality. It is partially because much work in theology is done with the assumption that since God exists God must care about human intentions and act...
